ABC Sandwich

1 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup minced scallions
2 tablespoons brandy
1/4 teaspoon coarsely-ground black pepper
18 slices toasted whole-wheat bread
Leaf lettuce
12 ounces crabmeat, picked over well to remove any shells
Tomato slices
12 slices slab bacon, cut in half, cooked crisp and drained
2 avocados, sliced

In a small bowl, combine the mayonnaise, scallion and brandy, mixing well. For each sandwich, spread three pieces of bread with a portion of the mayonnaise mixture. Cover the first slice of bread with lettuce leaves, 2 ounces of crabmeat, and one or two tomato slices. Add the second slice of bread, and top with the four half-slices of bacon, a layer of avocado slices, another tomato slice or two, and more lettuce. Cover with the third slice of bread, secure the sandwich with wooden picks, if you like, and slice it in half.

Serve the sandwiches immediately.

Alaska Salmon Salad Sandwich

15 1/2 ounces canned Alaska salmon
1/3 cup plain nonfat yogurt
1/3 cup chopped green onions
1/3 cup chopped celery
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Asian Turkey Burgers

1 pound ground turkey
1 1/3 cups canned French fried onions, divided 1 egg
1/2 cup finely chopped water chestnuts
1/4 cup dry breadcrumbs
3 tablespoons teriyaki sauce
1 tablespoon Frank's RedHot sauce
2 teaspoons grated fresh ginger
4 sandwich buns
Shredded lettuce

Combine turkey, 1 cup French fried onions, egg, water chestnuts, breadcrumbs, teriyaki sauce, hot sauce and ginger. Shape into 4 patties. Broil about 6 inches from heat or grill over medium heat 10 minutes or until no longer pink in center, turning once.

Avocado and Chicken Tortas

1 fully ripened Mexican avocado

2 (6-inch) sandwich rolls (such as Portuguese or submarine rolls), halved

Salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste

8 ounces grilled chicken breast, sliced

1 cup shredded iceberg or romaine lettuce

1 tomato, sliced

2/3 cup mashed black beans, divided

1/4 cup pickled jalapeño pepper slices

Cut lengthwise around middle of avocado; twist avocado to separate halves; strike pit with a knife blade to remove; scoop out pulp with a spoon.

In a small bowl, mash avocado.

To assemble tortas: Spread mashed avocado on cut sides of rolls, dividing evenly. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. On bottom halves, layer sliced chicken, lettuce, tomato, black beans and jalapeño pepper slices. Firmly press tops of rolls on tortas.

Yield: 2 sandwiches

Avocado Bacon Sandwiches

1/4 pound bacon slices, chopped
1 ripe avocado
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
Salt and pepper, to taste
3 tablespoons butter, softened
4 large slices whole wheat bread
Lemon twist and parsley sprig, to garnish

Fry bacon until crisp. Drain on paper towels.

Peel avocado, taking care not to remove bright green flesh just inside the skin. Cut in half and remove seed. In a bowl, mash avocado, then stir in lemon juice, salt and pepper.

Butter two slices of bread. Spread avocado mixture on buttered sides of 2 bread slices. Scatter bacon over avocado. Cover with remaining bread slices, buttered sides down, and press together.

Cut off bread crusts. Cut each sandwich into 4 triangles. Arrange on a serving plate, garnished with a lemon twist and parsley sprig.

Avocado Chicken Melt

4 boneless skinless chicken breast halves
1/2 cup cornmeal
1 teaspoon garlic salt
2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1/2 firm ripe avocado, peeled and sliced thin, divided
1 cup shredded Monterey jack cheese
4 wheat bread slices, toasted
1/2 cup plain yogurt
1/4 cup chopped sweet red bell pepper

Rinse chicken with cold water and pat dry with paper towels. Place between two sheets of plastic wrap and pound to flatten to 1/4-inch thickness.

In resealable plastic bag, combine cornmeal and garlic salt. Add chicken; close bag and toss to coat well. In large nonstick frying pan, heat oil. Cook chicken in hot oil for 2 minutes per side or until lightly browned. Remove chicken from pan and place in shallow baking pan.

Place half of avocado slices over chicken and sprinkle evenly with shredded cheese. Bake at 350 degrees F for 15 minutes or until chicken is done and cheese is melted.

Place each chicken breast on a slice of toast. Top with remaining avocado slices. In small bowl, combine yogurt and pepper; serve with chicken.

Yields 4 servings.

Turn tortillas and broil until other sides are pale golden. Sprinkle tortillas evenly with cheese and broil until cheese is melted and bubbling. 3/4 cup cola carbonated beverage 3/4 cup barbecue sauce
8 sandwich buns

Combine all ingredients except buns in a 4-quart crockpot; cook, covered, on HIGH for 5 to 6 hours, until very tender. Drain and slice or shred pork; serve on buns with additional barbecue sauce, if desired.

Serves 8.

Tip: Pork can be made 1 to 2 days ahead; refrigerate covered and reheat before serving.

Barbecue Quesadillas

8 (10-inch) flour tortillas
12 ounces smoked or barbecued meat
2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese
1 cup sautéed red bell peppers, julienne
1 cup sautéed onions, julienne
1 cup sautéed sliced mushrooms
Barbecue sauce

Sauté onions, peppers and mushrooms and place in bowl.

Shred or chop your meat and coat lightly with barbecue sauce.

Preheat nonstick skillet on medium. Spray pan with Pam. Place one tortilla in pan and cover entire tortilla with layer of cheese. Top cheese with smoked sauced meat and sautéed vegetables. Cover everything with another tortilla. Spray top of second tortilla with Pam and turn over after the bottom is browned. When the bottom of the second tortilla is browned, remove from pan and cut into wedges. Repeat process until all tortillas are used.

Serve on a large platter with salsa, sour cream and guacamole.

Barbecued Brisket

1 (4 to 5 pound) fresh beef brisket
1 (5 ounce) bottle Liquid Smoke
3 teaspoons garlic salt
2 teaspoons onion salt
2 teaspoons celery salt
1 (18 ounce) bottle barbecue sauce
Heavy-duty aluminum foil

Line a 12 x 9-inch or larger baking dish with heavy-duty aluminum foil, allowing enough foil to cover meat. Turn brisket fat-side down and pour entire bottle of Liquid Smoke over meat. Sprinkle the 3 salts over meat. Turn brisket over (fat side on top) and seal with foil. Marinate overnight.

Next morning pour off marinade; bake in a 225 degree F oven for 5 hours. Let cool.

Pour off gravy and refrigerate until cold. Slice meat with meat slicer on a thin setting or use an electric knife. Layer in casserole dish the brisket and barbecue sauce; repeat several times. Cook an additional 30 to 45 minutes in a 300 degree F oven until warm.

Yields 8 to 10 servings.

Barbecued Pork and Beef Sandwiches

In a crockpot, combine the following:

1 1/2 pounds lean stew beef
1 1/2 pounds lean pork cubes
1 cup finely chopped onion
2 cups finely chopped green bell pepper

Combine the following ingredients:

1 (6 ounce) can tomato paste
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup cider vinegar
1 tablespoon chili powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon dry mustard

Blend all of these ingredients well and add to the crockpot. Stir into the meat, onion and pepper mixture. Cover and cook on HIGH for 8 hours. Stir to shred meat before serving on buttered rolls or pita bread.

NOTE: If you do not have a crockpot, you can simmer this mixture on top of the stove. Use a very heavy Dutch oven with a tight-fitting lid.

This may also be served over rice rather than using rolls, if desired. Leftovers freeze great.

Barbecued Pork Sandwiches

1 pork roast
2 cups catsup
1 cup vinegar
3 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1/2 tablespoon Tabasco sauce (or to taste)
4 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
Buns

in stockpot, boil meat in water for 4 hours or until it is falling apart. Of course one can always use leftover pork roast but you will need a lot!!

Remove meat, cool, shred. Discard the liquid. In same pot, add catsup, vinegar, Worcestershire sauce, mustard, Tabasco, butter and brown sugar. Boil for 5 minutes, stirring. Mix in the shredded pork and simmer for at least 30 minutes but longer is even better!!

Barbecued Slaw Burgers

2 pounds ground beef
1 medium onion, diced
1 bottle barbecue sauce
1 sauce bottle water
5 to 6 tablespoons brown sugar
Buns
Cole slaw

Brown ground beef and onion in small amount of hot shortening. Add barbecue sauce, water and brown sugar. Bring to boil; simmer for 2 hours.

Couzan Billy Burger

Well I did get to testing a new burger a while back...just haven't posted it yet. It is fairly unique and combines some tastes you may not think work. Give it a try.....

Cut thick slices of red onion...about 1/2 inch for you onion lovers...thinner for the rest of us!

Grill these over low heat and apply your favorite BBQ sauce to both sides. Be careful not to burn and over cook. Set these aside and cover loosely with foil.

Then prepare your burger as you normally would and toast your buns.

Place the onion slice on the bottom bun and then the burger and top with your favorite bleu cheese dressing. This topping can be homemade very easily. Here are a couple of ideas.....

Mix bleu cheese with butter. Just enough butter to prevent the cheese from crumbling.

Mix bleu cheese with Mayo or sour cream, add some salt and pepper and a few drops of Tabasco sauce. I mix mine with Miracle Whip and Tabasco...again just enough to prevent the cheese from crumbling. I do this in my little hand processor.

I will try to get more accurate measurements this weekend for the above bleu cheese dressings

Cuban Sandwich

Use leftover Roast Pork a la Criolla for this sandwich if you have any. This sandwich is a favorite in Miami, Florida, as it was first made by the Hispanic community there. Since it is eaten in the wee hours, after an evening of dancing and music, the Cuban Sandwich is sometimes known as "Medica Noche" (midnight), especially when made on the soft, sweet egg sandwich roll available from Cuban bakeries.

Split a Cuban or a submarine roll in half lengthwise; spread each roll half with prepared mustard and layer sandwich with one ounce each thinly sliced roast pork, Swiss cheese and deli ham; add sliced dill or bread and butter pickles and close sandwich. Davy Crocketts

Yields 4.

2 cans crescent rolls
1 pound ground beef

Gyro-Style Pork Sandwich (George Foreman Grill)

I use a George Foreman grill to make this very authentic-tasting Gyro, but you can also use the oven.

1 pound boneless pork loin
4 tablespoons olive oil
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon ground cumin
1/3 cup lemon juice
3 cloves garlic, minced
1 teaspoon dried oregano
1 cup sour cream
1 cucumber, peeled, seeded, shredded and drained
1/2 teaspoon garlic, crushed
1/2 teaspoon dill

1 small red onion, peeled and thinly sliced
Lettuce and tomato slices

Cut pork crosswise into thin slices. Slice the into strips 5 x 1/2-inch.

Combine olive oil, mustard, cumin, lemon juice, minced garlic and oregano. Pour over pork slices. Cover and refrigerate for 1 to 8 hours.

Meanwhile, in small bowl stir together sour cream, cucumber, crushed garlic and dill. Cover and refrigerate.

If using the oven, preheat it to 450 degrees F. Drain marinade from pork slices and place pork in single layer in shallow pan. Roast until crisp, about 10 minutes.

If using the George Foreman grill (or similar), preheat the grill for 3 minutes. Drain the pork slices very well and place on the grill. Cook for six minutes, turning once. If your grill has the optional bun warmer, place the pitas in it to warm.

Open each pita to form a pocket. Distribute pork among each. Top each sandwich with some chilled cucumber mixture, sliced onions, lettuce and tomato slices.

Italian Sausage Sandwiches

I made these tonight and thought I'd share. The recipe says mild Italian sausage but I used a mix of mild and hot Italian sausage. It came in 6 inch links so I didn't have to cut it. I sautéed the pepper mix in a frying pan for convenience and cut the peppers into strips. Finally, I simmered the sausage in the marinara sauce for about 45 minutes. It turned out perfectly. Hope you guys like it too.

1 green bell pepper
1 yellow pepper
2 onions
1 cup marinara sauce
4 (6-inch) hoagie rolls
Minced garlic
Italian seasoning
Extra-virgin olive oil

Cut sausage into six-inch links. Grill approximately 20 minutes on each side until golden brown. Set sausage aside. Cut onions and peppers into half-moon wedges and place in a large bowl. Add two tablespoons of minced garlic, 3 tablespoons of Italian seasoning and 1/2 cup of olive oil. Mix well. Place the mixture of peppers and onions on the grill and sauté until soft.

Place the sausage in the hoagie roll, top with onions and peppers, marinara sauce and Parmesan cheese.

Kentucky Hot Brown

The Kentucky Hot Brown originated at the Brown Hotel in Louisville early this century. There are as many versions of the dish as there are cooks who make it. This recipe is based on the one used at the old Lafayette Hotel in Lexington.

For each serving

2 pieces toast

Turkey breast slices

3 slices crisp bacon

1/3 cup Parmesan cheese

1 tablespoon butter or margarine

1 cup white sauce

Tomato half (optional)

White Sauce (for each cup)

2 tablespoons flour

2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Salt and pepper

1 cup milk

To make white sauce, melt butter or margarine. Remove from heat and add flour, salt and pepper. Blend well. Return to heat for one to two minutes. Remove from heat and add milk slowly, stirring constantly. Return to medium heat and cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens and begins to bubble.

Use individual oval or rectangular casserole dishes to assemble Hot Brown. (If you wish, place tomato half at one end of casserole.) Place two pieces toast in bottom of casserole (one piece may have to be cut to fit in ends of dish.) Heap turkey breast slices on toast (be sure to use "real" turkey rather than rolled, pressed or processed). Cover turkey with white sauce. Cover white sauce (and tomato half, if used) with liberal coating of grated Parmesan. Dot Parmesan with butter or margarine. Broil until butter melts and blends with Parmesan to make golden crust. Crush bacon and sprinkle on top. Serve at once.

Muffuletta Sandwiches

In New Orleans the two best Muffulettas, bar none, can be had at Central Grocery or at Napoleon House on Chartres Street.

Muffuletta Bread

1 cup warm water (110 degrees F)
1 tablespoon granulated sugar
1 envelope active dry yeast
About 3 cups bread flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons vegetable shortening
Sesame seeds

In a 2-cup glass measuring cup, combine water and sugar. Stir in yeast. Let stand until foamy, 5 to 10 minutes.

In a food processor fitted with the steel blade, combine 3 cups flour, salt and shortening. Add yeast mixture. Process until dough forms a ball, about 5 seconds. Stop machine; check consistency of dough. It should be smooth and satiny. If dough is too dry, add more warm water, 1 tablespoon at a time, processing just until blended. If dough is too sticky, add more flour, 1 or 2 tablespoons at a time, processing just until blended. Process 20 seconds to knead.

Lightly oil a large bowl, swirling to coat bottom and sides. Place dough in oiled bowl; turn to coat all sides. Cover bowl with plastic wrap. Let rise in a warm, draft-free place until doubled in bulk, about 1 1/2 hours.

Lightly grease a baking sheet. When dough has doubled in bulk, punch down dough; turn out onto a lightly floured surface. Form dough into a round loaf about 10 inches in diameter; place on greased baking sheet. Sprinkle top of loaf with sesame seeds; press seeds gently into surface of loaf. Cover very loosely with plastic wrap; let rise until almost doubled in bulk, 1 hour.

Place rack in center of oven. Preheat oven to 425 degrees F. Remove plastic wrap. Bake loaf in center of preheated oven 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 375 degrees F; bake 25 minutes. The loaf is done when it sounds hollow when tapped on bottom. Cool completely on a rack before slicing. Makes 1 loaf.

Oyster Loaf (La Mediatrice)

This was popular throughout America in the 19th century. In the Vieux Carre of New Orleans it was known as "the mediator." It was the one thing a man felt might effectively stand between his enraged wife and himself when he came home after spending an evening carousing in the saloons of the French Quarter. He would buy the oyster loaf for pennies, just before going home, in the French market.

Cut the tops off small French rolls and scoop out most of the center. Brush the cut side of the tops and the hollowed-out center with melted butter. Place both tops and rolls in a 425 degree F oven until toasted to a very light brown.

Meanwhile, sauté the oysters in hot butter until they plump up and the edges curl. Add salt, pepper, 2 or 3 drops Tabasco Sauce and a little hot cream, if desired. Fill the hot rolls and cover with crusty tops. Use about 3 oysters to one roll. Serve hot.

1/2 teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons unsalted butter
2 tablespoons vegetable oil

While the fish is cooking, spread both sides of each bun with 1 tablespoon tartar sauce. Place a grouper fillet on the bottom half of each bun, top with lettuce and tomato, if desired, and cover with the top of the bun. Serve immediately.

1/8 teaspoon freshly ground pepper

Sandwiches

1 (10- to 12-ounce) skirt steak, trimmed of excess fat
1 clove garlic
1/4 teaspoon ground cumin
Juice of 1 small lime
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 crusty rolls, split (see note)
1 small red bell pepper, finely chopped

To make guacamole: Peel, seed and dice the avocado. Place the avocado in a serving bowl and mash with the lemon juice until pulpy. Add the tomato, chile, green onion, salt and pepper. Makes 2 servings.

To make sandwiches: With a sharp knife, make shallow diagonal slashes in one direction on the steak, then across in the other direction to score the surface. Smash the garlic clove with the flat of a knife. Rub the smashed garlic over the surface of the meat. Rub the ground cumin on both sides of the meat, followed by the lime juice, salt and pepper.

Place the meat on a broiler pan 4 inches from heat and broil 3 minutes per side. Remove from broiler and let stand 1 minute. Cut the meat into thin strips crosswise and arrange half on the bottom half of each roll. Top with half of the diced red pepper and close the roll.

Serve the guacamole on the side.

NOTE: If desired, toast the rolls in 350 degree F oven for 5 minutes before assembling

Smoked Gouda and Caramelized Onion Quesadillas

2 tablespoons butter
1 onion, thinly sliced
1 tablespoon golden brown sugar
1/4 teaspoon white wine vinegar
1 1/2 cups grated smoked Gouda cheese
4 (10-inch diameter) flour tortillas
2 ounces sliced prosciutto, chopped
Pepper to taste
2 tablespoons butter, melted

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F for 15 minutes before baking.

Melt 2 tablespoons butter in heavy medium skillet over medium heat. Add onion, brown sugar and vinegar; sauté until onion is golden brown, stirring occasionally, about 25 minutes, lowering heat if necessary to prevent over-browning. Remove from heat. Cool to room temperature.

Sprinkle cheese over half of each tortilla, dividing equally. Sprinkle prosciutto and sautéed onion over cheese. Season with pepper. Fold other half of each tortilla over cheese mixture. Brush tortilla with some of melted butter.

Brush heavy, large skillet with some of melted butter. Place over medium-high heat. Working in batches, cook quesadillas just until brown spots appear, brushing skillet with butter between batches, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer quesadillas to heavy large baking sheet. Bake until tortillas are golden and cheese melts, about 5 minutes. Transfer quesadillas to work surface. Cut each into 6 triangles. Arrange on platter and serve hot.

Yields 6 servings.

Smoked Pork Loin Sandwiches

8 cups boiling water
2/3 cup kosher salt
1/2 cup packed dark brown sugar
1 (2 pound) boneless pork roast
Chunks or logs of fragrant hardwood

Stir together the water, salt and brown sugar. Cool to room temperature.

Pour the brine over the pork. Use one or two heavy plates to weight the pork down and keep it beneath the surface of the brine. Cover and refrigerate for 12 hours.

Pour off and discard the brine. Rinse the pork under cold running water, then pat dry. Bring the pork to room temperature.

Prepare a smoker according to manufacturer's instructions, using the wood chunks and reaching a steady temperature of 275 degrees F to 300 degrees F. Place the pork on the rack in the coolest part of the smoker (at the end farthest from the firebox or on the upper shelf). Lower the cover and smoke the pork, rotating it on the rack once or twice (but not turning it over) to promote even smoking, for about 2 1/2 hours or until it is just fully cooked through and tender without showing any sign of pinkness.

Remove the pork from the smoker and cool to room temperature. The pork will be most flavorful if it is not refrigerated. Or wrap it well and refrigerate for up to 3 days, returning it to room temperature before slicing or shredding and serving it

Fry sausages until done and slice into 1/4-inch rounds. Place in a large bowl and add cheese, mushrooms, garlic and cayenne. Toss well.

Cut dough into 8 rounds and roll out each into 6-inch circles. Share the wealth of filling with each round, moisten edges with water, fold over, press lightly and seal/crimp.

Place on sheet and lightly oil tops of calzone-sometimes I dust with parmesan cheese. Bake for about 12 minutes.

Serve hot with warmed marinara sauce. Optional-olives and thinly sliced onions or use bacon and ham in place of sausages

Spicy Sausage Sandwiches

Salsa

2 jalapeño peppers
1 large fresh banana pepper
1/2 cup diced red bell pepper
1/2 cup diced Vidalia or sweet onion
1/2 cup frozen corn, thawed
1 tablespoon chopped fresh cilantro or parsley

Remove seeds and membranes from jalapeño and banana peppers if desired (for a less spicy salsa). Dice peppers and place in a bowl; add remaining salsa ingredients and mix well. Cover and refrigerate until ready to serve.

Sandwich

Spinach Calzone

2 packages pizza dough mix (the powder kind)
1 package chopped broccoli
1 package chopped spinach
1 container ricotta cheese
8 ounces mozzarella cheese
Garlic or garlic salt

Take all the ingredients except the pizza dough and mix it in a bowl. Make one package of dough according to directions and spread in the bottom of a cake pan or any baking dishes with sides. I find this to be the best because it is sometimes tricky to spread the top dough on. Then pour the filling on top of the dough. Make the second package of dough and spread on dough the best you can. Bake for about 30 minutes or so. I would check often to see if crust is brown. Sometimes it seems to take forever and sometimes it does not. I guess it just depends on how hungry I am. I usually top it off with some Ragu Pizza Sauce.

Spinach Calzone

Pizza dough (store bought or homemade)
2 packages frozen spinach, steamed, drained and cooled
1 medium onion, sliced thin
1 (4 ounce) package feta cheese, crumbled
1 cup pizza cheese

Follow directions for pizza crust as if making pizza. When crust is ready - spread spinach over 1/2 of crust then sprinkle feta, onions and pizza cheese over spinach. Fold crust over spinach and seal edges. Bake at 425 degrees F for about 15 minutes or until crust is golden.

I used a homemade crust I will post separately and I use a small size cookie sheet with sides as my pizza pan. You can also make this with a pizza sauce on the crust before the spinach but I prefer it without. Enjoy!!!

Spinach Calzones

1 loaf frozen whole wheat bread dough

1 (10 ounce) package frozen spinach

2 eggs

1 cup ricotta cheese, about 1/2 pound

12 to 16 ounces mozzarella cheese, cubed

1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg

Spray a bread pan with Pam. Place frozen dough in the pan and cover with plastic wrap. Let rise.

Defrost frozen spinach in a medium bowl. Remove spinach to squeeze out any excess moisture. In the same bowl you used to defrost spinach, combine eggs with ricotta cheese, nutmeg and spinach. Stir in mozzarella.

Divide bread dough into quarters and roll into four 8-inch circles. Cover half of each dough circle with a quarter of the filling, leaving a 1/2-inch border around the edge. Fold dough over the filling to form a turnover. Press edges with the tines of a fork to seal.

Spray a baking sheet with Pam and place calzones on it. Bake at 425 degrees F for 18 to 20 minutes, or until calzones are puffed and a deep golden brown.

Steak and Mushroom Sandwiches

Makes 6 servings.

1 pound flank or sirloin steak
2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 medium onion, sliced
2 medium portobello mushrooms, trimmed and sliced thin
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dried oregano
6 long sandwich buns (about 6 inches)
4 to 8 ounces mozzarella or other cheese, sliced
Pickled jalapeño slices or spicy pickled okra (optional)

Put the steak in the freezer for 30 minutes to make it easier to slice.

Heat vegetable oil in a wide skillet over medium-high heat. Add the onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until limp and well-browned. This might take 20 minutes.

Meanwhile, slice steak as thinly as you can against the grain. (The grain on flank steak is easy to see - it's the long, striated indentations.) If you end up shaving some of the meat rather than actually slicing it, that's fine. When the onions are brown, increase heat to high and add mushrooms, salt and oregano. Cook, stirring, 6 minutes, until mushrooms are limp and dark.

Add beef and stir quickly and constantly until it's no longer pink.

Divide mixture among buns and top with sliced cheese.

Serve with pickled jalapeño peppers or okra, if desired. Serve with a salad of chopped tomatoes and cucumber.

Steak and Veggie Sandwiches

2 teaspoons olive oil
1 medium zucchini, cut into 1/4-inch-thick slices
1 medium onion, thinly sliced
1 medium red bell pepper, cut into thin strips
1 teaspoon Italian seasoning, crushed
1 teaspoon olive oil
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
4 crusty hoagie rolls, about 6 inches long, split 4 (3/4 ounce) slices mozzarella cheese

Cut beef into strips. Set aside.

Stick to a Monte Cristo

4 ounces cream cheese, room temperature
1/2 cup Christopher Ranch roasted garlic
2 tablespoons chopped Italian parsley
6 slices large, square white bread
1 pound thinly sliced rosemary ham (available in our deli)
5 ounces thinly sliced Swiss cheese
4 (8-inch) bamboo skewers
3 eggs
3 tablespoons milk
1/4 cup garlic-flavored olive oil
Honey-Balsamic and Apricot Syrup (recipe to follow)

Cream together cream cheese, roasted garlic and parsley. Spread 1/5th of the mixture onto the first slice of bread. Top with 3 ounces ham and 1 ounce Swiss cheese. Top with another slice of bread and repeat layering with cream cheese, ham, Swiss cheese and bread. Finish off the top with the last slice of bread. Slide 1 bamboo skewer into the top of the sandwich at each side. With a sharp serrated knife, cut crusts off the edges of the sandwich. Make 2 diagonal slices through the sandwich to create 4 equal triangles.

Whisk together eggs and milk. Dip each sandwich skewer into the egg mixture, coat all sides well and place on a separate plate. Heat olive oil on a griddle over medium heat. Place all of the skewers onto the griddle and brown for approximately 2 minutes on each side. Serve with Honey-Balsamic and Apricot Syrup.

Serves 4.

Honey-Balsamic and Apricot Syrup
2 tablespoons olive oil
1/2 cup small diced yellow onions
2 tablespoons Christopher Ranch chopped garlic
1/2 cup apricot preserves
1/4 cup honey
2 tablespoons white balsamic vinegar
2 teaspoons finely chopped rosemary

Heat olive oil in a small saucepan over medium heat. Add onions and sauté until translucent. Add garlic and sauté for 1 to 2 minutes. Add remaining ingredients and let simmer for an additional 10 minutes. Remove from heat and place into a food processor or blender. Puree until smooth.

1 (10 3/4 ounce) can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 cup sour cream
10 sliced hamburger buns

In a large skillet, melt the butter over medium heat. Add the onion, garlic and ground beef. Stir until the meat is browned.

In a separate bowl, combine the flour, salt, paprika and nutmeg. Sprinkle the flour mixture over the meat and stir until blended.

Add the mushrooms and mushroom soup. Stir to blend and simmer 10 minutes.

Fold in the sour cream. Simmer the mixture 5 minutes longer.

Serve 1/3 cup stroganoff over each hamburger bun.

Makes 10 sandwiches.

Stuff on a Shingle

1 (2.25 ounce) jar Armour dried beef slices
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
3 cups milk
10 slices sandwich bread, toasted

Remove beef slices from jar and separate. Rinse under warm water. Place beef on paper toweling in a single layer to drain. Pat dry with more paper towels. Re-stack slices and chop into bite-size pieces.

In a large skillet, melt butter over medium heat. Reduce heat to low, add flour and stir. Add beef, stirring to coat. Slowly add milk, stirring after each addition until mixture is smooth.

Increase heat to medium-high and cook until mixture begins to boil and thickens. Serve over toasted bread slices.

Stuffed Bacon-Wrapped Dawgs

4 slices bread, cut into 1/2-inch cubes
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley
1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
3 tablespoons water
Salt and pepper
6 frankfurters
6 slices bacon

Combine first 4 ingredients; add enough water to moisten, and mix well. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Slit frankfurters lengthwise, cutting almost through; stuff with bread mixture. Wrap a bacon slice around each frankfurter, securing with a wooden pick. Place in a shallow pan and bake at 400 degrees F for 15 to 20 minutes.

Stuffed Sandwich

1 (7 ounce) jar pitted Kalamata olives, drained and sliced
1 1/2 cups diced, peeled white onion
1 pound ripe beefsteak tomatoes, chopped
1/2 pound mozzarella cheese, diced (about 1 1/2 cups)
1 cup grated Parmesan cheese
2 cloves pressed garlic
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons dried basil
1/4 cup wine vinegar
1/3 cup olive oil
10 hard rolls
3 tablespoons soft butter
3 fresh basil leaves

Mix the olives, onion, tomatoes and cheeses in a large bowl. Set aside. Blend the garlic, salt, pepper, basil, vinegar and oil into a dressing by placing in a covered jar and shaking. Pour it over the ingredients in the bowl, and toss gently. Set aside.

Prepare each roll by cutting a shallow plug hole 2-inches in diameter out of the top, then pulling out the soft inside. Make sure you leave some bread on the bottom. The pulled out bread can be saved to make bread crumbs later.

Melt butter, add the fresh basil leaves and allow the basil flavors to infuse into the butter. Brush some of the basil butter into the bottom of each roll. Place about 2/3 cup of the filling into each roll, then replace the plug on the top. Use aluminum foil to wrap each sandwich individually. If not cooking right away, place in the refrigerator and remove about an hour before baking. Bake in a 350 degree F oven for 20 to 25 minutes.

Super Monte Cristo Sandwiches

Sliced sandwich bread
Deli sliced honey or boiled ham
Deli sliced turkey
Deli sliced Swiss cheese
Canned pineapple slices
2 to 3 cups corn flakes, semi-crushed
2 eggs
1 cup milk
Raspberry jam (or favorite flavor)
Vegetable oil

Make the sandwiches by layering the turkey, ham, cheese and pineapple slices (blotted to remove excess moisture).

Cut the sandwiches diagonally to form triangles. Wrap the sandwiches tightly and semi-freeze them to keep them from falling apart while working with them.

When you are ready to fry the sandwiches, beat the egg and milk into a light mixture.

Dip the sandwiches into the egg mixture, covering all surfaces, then cover in corn flakes. Repeat this process one more time. Put wooden picks into the sandwich halves to secure if necessary. If deep frying the sandwiches, submerge and cook for approximately 1 to 1 1/2 minutes or until the corn flakes are golden brown. Remove and allow to drain.

If pan-frying the sandwiches; follow the recipe above, making sure the oil is hot enough to prevent sticking but not too hot to burn the bottoms. Fry on each side for about 45 seconds or until golden brown. Again drain on paper towels.

Serve with a side of raspberry jam for dipping.

Super Roast Beef Subs

1 (1 ounce) envelope onion soup mix
1 tablespoon all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon ground cumin

1 pound deli roast beef slices
2 tomatoes, seeded and diced
2 cups (8 ounces) shredded Colby-Monterey jack cheese blend

Combine first 4 ingredients in a microwave-safe bowl. Stir in 1 cup water; cover with plastic wrap, folding back a corner to allow steam to escape. Microwave at HIGH 4 to 5 minutes or until thickened, stirring once. Stir in salsa.

Slice off top one-third of each bread loaf lengthwise; hollow out bottoms of loaves, leaving 1-inch thick shells. Place 1 cup lettuce in bottom of each shell. Layer each with half of roast beef, half of salsa mixture, and remaining roast beef. Sprinkle with tomato and cheese; spread with remaining salsa mixture, and sprinkle with remaining lettuce. Cover with bread tops, and press down lightly. If desired, wrap in plastic wrap and chill.

Taco Burgers

1 1/2 pounds hamburger
1 tablespoon onion, chopped (I use more)
1 package taco mix
1 beaten egg
1 cup finely crushed tortilla chips

Combine all ingredients and mix well. Shape into six patties. Grill. When almost done, add a slice of cheese on top of each patty and continue grilling until it just begins to melt.

Taco Filling

1 large, ripe tomato, roasted, then peeled and roughly chopped
1/2 small onion, chopped
1 clove garlic, peeled and chopped
1 tablespoon lard or vegetable oil
1 whole chicken breast, cooked skinned, boned and shredded
1/2 teaspoon salt

Combine tomato, onion and garlic in a blender and process until very smooth. Heat the lard or oil in a medium-size skillet over medium-high heat. When quite hot, add the purée and stir constantly until it is thick and reduced, about 4 minutes. Stir in the chicken, remove from the heat and season with salt.

To make tacos, quick-fry 12 corn tortillas to soften them. Drain well on paper towels. Place 2 tablespoons of filling across each tortilla, roll up and secure with wooden picks. Cover with plastic wrap.

Add more oil to what is in the skillet and heat to medium-high heat. When quite hot, place 6 tacos in the oil. Fry, turning occasionally, until all sides are lightly browned and crispy, about 4 minutes. Drain on paper towels and keep warm in a slow oven while frying the remainder.

Serve tacos over a bed of shredded lettuce, and drizzle with crema. Dollop guacamole down the center and sprinkle with grated cheese.

Tea Sandwich Ideas and Recipes

Tea Sandwiches

Use day-old, thinly-sliced, square white loaves. Cut off the crusts and butter the bread sparingly, using soft butter so the slices don't break. Add a modest amount of filling, and no more; two tablespoons per slice of any of the fillings below is sufficient. Spread the filling, add any garnish, and place another slice on top. Using a long, sharp knife, make an X-cut to get four smaller triangular sandwiches. Add a couple of long toothpicks to help stabilize while you are cutting. Place the cut sandwiches on a serving platter, and cover with a damp napkin. Refrigerate for at least four hours.

FILLINGS: Mix up a small batch of three or four of your favorite sandwich fillings. You can use a curried egg salad (the usual mayo and eggs but add 1/2 teaspoon of curry powder,) tuna salad with lots of celery, deviled ham with some extra mayo, scrimp salad, etc. Try to pick out flavors that will taste well together. Some popular combos are:

Anchovy butter and Greek olives: combine 1 ounce of anchovy fillets, 2 tablespoons of butter, and a pinch of black pepper in a small food-processor. Spread very thinly on the bread, and add a layer of finely-sliced pitted Greek olives on top.

Boiled chicken and ham: Thinly sliced, with mustard.

Avocado slices: with Dijon mustard dressing and chives.

Tomato slices with basil.

And, of course...cucumber.

When making such sandwiches keep in mind that the bread should be sliced thinly and served without crusts. The sandwich should be large enough for only two bites and, even though many people serve sandwiches cut in the shape of stars, crescents and other odd shapes, it is far more elegant for sandwiches to be cut in thin rectangular, triangular, round or square shapes. As to the choice of bread, white bread, challah, light rye bread, Danish pumpernickel and dark Russian bread make the best tea sandwiches. As to fillings for sandwiches, the choices are virtually infinite. Consider some of the following:

White meat of chicken or turkey with mayonnaise or butter

White meat of chicken with chutney butter

Chopped chicken with chopped almonds

Chopped chicken with sweet pickles
Baked ham with chutney on pumpernickel
Chopped ham with English mustard, fresh horseradish and sweet cream
Chopped ham with chopped black olives and grated cheese
Thinly sliced tongue with French mustard and chopped chives
Thin slices of roast beef with English mustard or horse-radish and sweet cream
Thin slices of roast lamb with garlic butter
Thin slices of roast veal with anchovy butter
Sliced salami with herbed mayonnaise
Finely chopped shrimp with seasoned mayonnaise
Finely shredded crab meat with herbed or garlic butter
Finely shredded crab meat mixed with chopped chives and mayonnaise
Smoked salmon and butter
Smoked salmon with horseradish
Thinly sliced onion and cucumber
Chopped green olives and mayonnaise
Chopped green olives and nuts mixed with cream cheese.

Thinly sliced hard boiled smoked turkey eggs with butter or mayonnaise
Thinly sliced avocado with mustard flavored mayonnaise

Anchovy fillets that have been chopped very finely and blended with cream cheese and chopped pickled onion.
Red caviar (salmon eggs) mixed together with lemon juice and cream cheese
Anchovy filets with chopped hard boiled egg
Chopped green olives and nuts blended with cream cheese
Thin slices of fresh salmon and cucumber
Finely chopped green pepper bound with mayonnaise
Cream cheese* blended with fresh horse-radish
Cream cheese* and chives with cucumber
Cream cheese* that has been blended with chopped chives, French mustard and black pepper
Cream cheese* that has been blended with Indian chutney and butter
Cream cheese* blended with chopped chives, French mustard, salt and pistachio nuts

* Note: Cream cheese used in tea sandwiches should have a minimum fat content of 16%.

Start with dense high quality breads like pumpernickel, rye, whole wheat sliced thinly. Assemble your tea sandwiches and then store in the refrigerator. Arrange on a serving platter when ready to eat, use flowers or cut herbs to garnish.

Cranberry fingers Mix some Dijon mustard in whole cranberry sauce, flavor to taste. spread on the bread on then add a small slice of smoked turkey, add top layer of bread.

Salmon and Dill Spread buttered bread with softened cream cheese which has dried dill added to it. Lay a very thin piece of salmon or lox on the cream cheese. Garnish with a fresh tiny sprig of dill.

Lavender Egg Salad chop 4 hard boiled eggs, mix in 1 ounce of mayonnaise and 1 ounce of plain yogurt. Mix in 1 teaspoon of curry powder and 1 tablespoon dried lavender buds. Spread on your bread and top with a green olive.

Celery-Nut: Whip a soft block of cream cheese with 1/4 cup of milk; add 1/2 cup of celery and 1/2 chopped walnuts and spread on your whole wheat bread.

Pineapple Cream: Thin a block of cream cheese with 1/4 cup of milk, and then add 1 cup of finely chopped pineapple and spread on Boston Brown Bread.

Apricot Ham Finger Sandwich: Mix 3 parts of cream cheese with 1 part of apricot preserves. Spread on your bread and then top with thinly sliced ham. Garnish with a 1/4 sliver of dried apricot. You can also use cherry preserves in place of the apricot

Spring Radish: Butter slices of pumpernickel bread and add thinly sliced radishes, a slice of bread and then some more radishes.

Cucumber Sandwiches: Mix seasoned salt into your butter then butter your bread of choice. Add thinly sliced cucumbers that have been dried by paper towels. Top with small sprig of parsley.

And last but not least ideas about the food which work well not just with the English teas but with our shower parties:

The food served at teas should be easy to eat and require neither forks nor knives. Tea sandwiches, canapes and foods that may be picked up and eaten with toothpicks are ideal for tea parties as are cookies, petits fours and miniature pastries such as eclairs and cream puffs. Instead of serving food on large platters, it is wise to use small or medium serving plates because they are easier to keep filled and looking neat.

1/2 cup olive oil
1 tablespoon chopped Christopher Ranch fresh peeled garlic
1 tablespoon chopped fresh oregano
1 tablespoon chopped fresh thyme Salt and pepper to taste

The Aioli

1/2 cup roasted garlic cloves (reserved from 6-ounce jar)
1/2 cup pitted kalamata olives
1 cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon balsamic vinegar
1 tablespoon chopped fresh thyme
1 tablespoon chopped fresh oregano Salt and pepper to taste

The Rest

6 crusty French rolls
1 cup basil chiffonade (finely shredded)
1 cup arugula chiffonade
1 cup romaine lettuce chiffonade

Pierce with a paring knife and place a whole clove of roasted garlic all the way into the meat. Repeat until all roasted garlic is inserted. This may take about 10 minutes but is well worth the time. Place tri tip in the bag with the marinade, making sure the marinade is distributed evenly over the meat. Marinate for at least 2 hours in the refrigerator.

For the aioli, place reserved roasted garlic and olives in a food processor. Pulse until coarsely chopped. Add mayonnaise, balsamic vinegar and herbs. Pulse again until blended. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Using the direct heat method, grill tri tip over medium heat until the internal temperature reaches 145 degrees F. Let meat rest for 20 minutes before slicing. While meat is resting, lightly toast French rolls on the grill. Prepare greens and tomatoes, then toss together gently just before assembling sandwich. Slice meat and season to taste with salt and pepper. Spread both sides of the rolls with aioli. Top with tri tip, greens and tomatoes.

Baltimore-Style Oysters Loaves

Serves: 4

Ingredients:

2 large, fresh-baked crusty French rolls (approx. 8 by 4)

4 oz. butter, softened

1 pint fresh oysters, rinsed and drained

1 or 2 eggs, beaten

1-1/2 cups fine saltine cracker crumbs

2 tsp. black pepper, or more to your taste vegetable shortening for frying

approx. 1/4 cup Tabasco sauce

Preheat oven to 450 degrees (hot) Cut a large lid in the top of each French roll, remove it and with your fingers scoop out the inside of the roll, leaving about a 1 inch shell inside the roll and on the lid. Use a brush or the back of a spoon to spread the softened butter all over the insides of the rolls and on the underside of the lids. Place rolls, hollowed-out side down, on a cookie sheet.

Place lids buttered side down. Put the rolls and lids in the hot oven for 5-8 minutes, or until they begin to get crispy but BEFORE they begin to brown. Remove rolls from oven and turn it down to 300 degrees. Pat dry the oysters. Begin heating 1-1/2 inches of shortening in a heavy skillet.

Fry at a time, dip the oysters in beaten egg, then in a mixture of the cracker crumbs and black pepper. Drop a cracker crumb in the shortening--if it sizzles without turning immediately brown, the shortening is the right temperature. Fry oysters four at a time until they are light golden brown and crispy, turning after 2 minutes and frying for a total of 3 minutes altogether. Remove to paper toweling. Repeat with rest of the oysters, four at a time (too many oysters in pan brings down temperature of the fat and makes them soggy).

Assembly: Put four fried oysters in the bottom of one of the French rolls. Sprinkle them with Tabasco sauce to your taste. For the second layer, put in as many more oysters as will fit in the roll with the lid snugly on top (usually 2-3 more oysters.) Sprinkle these with Tabasco and then put on the lid. Wrap entire loaf tightly in aluminum foil and keep warm in a low oven. Repeat assembly for second oyster loaf. Ready to serve! Get out some forks, paper napkins, lemon wedges if you like, and some cold beer. This should be a shared feast with everyone spearing oysters out of the loaf and, of course, munching on the bread itself as they go along

Pressed Picnic Sandwich

Pressing this sandwich melds the flavors of this sandwich allowing the layers to become one incredible experience.

This sandwich can be made one day ahead of time; instead of adding the vinaigrette in step three, add it just before you pack the sandwich, or one hour before serving.

Serves: 10

Ingredients:

1 large flat loaf rustic bread
1 1/2 teaspoons Dijon mustard
1 tablespoon balsamic vinegar
1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
Salt and freshly ground pepper
1 loaf rustic Italian bread, such as ciabatta
1/2 cup prepared black-olive paste
8 ounces fresh goat cheese
8 ounces marinated artichokes
6 ounces prosciutto, thinly sliced
1/4 pound peppered salami, thinly sliced
2 1/4 cups loosely packed mixed fresh herbs, such as basil, cilantro, or parsley

1. Heat a grill or grill pan to hot; alternatively, heat the broiler. Cook peppers until completely charred, turning frequently so all sides cook evenly, 8 to 10 minutes. Remove from heat. Place peppers in a deep bowl, and cover bowl with plastic wrap. Set bowl aside until the skins loosen and the peppers are cool enough to handle. Using your hands, rub off the charred skin, rinsing your hands frequently under cold running water. Slice peppers in half, and remove the seeds and stems. Cut flesh into 1-inch-wide strips.

2. In a medium bowl, combine the mustard and vinegar. Gradually whisk in the olive oil. Whisk in 2 tablespoons warm water. Whisk in salt and pepper to taste, and set the vinaigrette aside.

3. Slice the loaf of bread lengthwise, and remove crumb; reserve crumb for another use. Spread the olive paste on the bottom crust, and add the pepper strips. Crumble the goat cheese on top of peppers. Arrange artichokes over goat cheese. Drizzle half of the reserved vinaigrette on top. Arrange prosciutto and salami over artichokes. Drizzle with the remaining vinaigrette. Scatter herbs over meats. Place the top crust on sandwich.

4. Wrap the sandwich tightly with plastic wrap. Set a weight such as a brick or large cast-iron skillet on top for at least 1 hour. When ready to serve, slice sandwich into ten pieces.

Special Spaghetti and Meatballs

Ingredients

4 tablespoons (1/4 stick) unsalted butter
1 med onion, peeled and finely chopped
3 garlic cloves, peeled and minced
4 slices Italian bread, crusts discarded, cut into small dice
1/4 cup whole milk
2 pounds lean ground veal
1 large egg, lightly beaten
1/4 cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese
1 tablespoon chopped fresh parsley
1 tablespoon chopped fresh basil leaves
1 teaspoon chopped fresh thyme leaves
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
5 cups My Favorite Tomato Sauce
1 pound dry spaghetti or several Italian hoagies
Chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley, for garnish
Freshly ground Parmesan cheese, for garnish

Directions

1. In a medium skillet over medium heat, melt the butter. Add the onion and garlic and sauté until soft, about five minutes, taking care not to turn onions brown. Remove mixture to a small bowl and set aside to cool.
2. In large mixing bowl, combine the bread and milk. Set aside for about 10 minutes, until all the milk is completely absorbed.
3. Add to the mixing bowl and the sautéed onion and garlic, ground veal, egg, Parmesan, parsley, basil, thyme, salt, sugar, and black pepper.
4. Wetting your hands with cold water, roll about one-eighth of the veal mixture into a large, even meatball and place it on a large plate or baking sheet. Repeat with the remaining mixture, making 8 meatballs in all.

5. In a large saucepan over medium heat, heat the tomato sauce until it is very gently simmering. One at a time, carefully lower the meatballs into the simmering sauce. Reduce the heat and simmer very gently, covered, until the meatballs are cooked through and the sauce has thickened, about 45 minutes.
6. Bring a large pot of salted water to boil. Add the spaghetti and cook until al dente, tender but still chewy, following the manufacturer's suggested cooking time.
7. With a slotted spoon, remove the meatballs from the sauce and transfer them to a plate. Remove 1 1/2 cups of sauce from the pan and keep it warm. Drain the spaghetti and instantly stir into the tomato sauce in the saucepan. Toss to coat the spaghetti thoroughly. Twirl or mound the spaghetti into each of 8 warmed serving bowls or plates. Top with the meatballs and drizzle with the reserved sauce. Sprinkle with chopped parsley and Parmesan cheese, if desired.

My Favorite Tomato Sauce

Ingredients

1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
2 small onions, peeled, trimmed, and minced
6 garlic cloves, minced
2 tablespoons tomato paste
4 pounds Roma tomatoes, peeled, seeded, and diced
2 cups chicken stock or good-quality canned chicken broth, heated 12 to 16 fresh basil leaves, washed and dried 12 tablespoons (1 1/2 sticks) unsalted butter, cut into small pieces
Kosher salt (to taste)
Freshly ground black pepper

Directions

1. In a large saucepan, heat the olive oil over medium-high heat. Add the onion and sauté until soft, about 5 minutes. Add the garlic and cook 1 minute longer. Add the tomato paste and then the tomatoes, cook for 2 to 3 minutes, and then pour in the chicken stock. Simmer briskly until the sauce is thick, 20 to 30 minutes. For finer consistency, pass the sauce through a wire-mesh sieve into a clean saucepan.
2. Stack the basil leaves, roll them up lengthwise, and cut across the roll very thinly to make a chiffonade. Stir the basil into the sauce. Whisk in the butter piece by piece, then season to taste with salt and pepper. Keep warm.

Garlic Meatball Po'Boys

Ingredients

1/2 pound of ground veal
1/2 pound of ground beef chuck
1/2 pound of ground pork
1/2 cup finely chopped yellow onion
1/2 teaspoon finely chopped garlic
1/4 cup finely chopped green onions or scallions (green part only)
1 large egg
1/4 cup fine dried bread crumbs
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
3/4 tablespoon cayenne pepper
16 small cloves garlic, peeled
1/4 cup bleached all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon Creole Seasoning
1/4 cup vegetable oil
2 cups thinly sliced yellow onions
One 12-ounce bottle amber beer
1 cup water
1 large (26 to 28 inches long) loaf French bread
6 tablespoons Creole or whole grain mustard
6 tablespoons Mayonnaise
1/2 pound provolone cheese, thinly sliced

Directions

1. In a large mixing bowl, combine the ground meats, chopped yellow onion, chopped garlic, green onions, egg, bread crumbs, Worcestershire, 1 teaspoon of the salt and 1/2 teaspoon of the cayenne. Mix well with your hands and form into 16 meatballs. Insert a garlic clove in the center of each meatball and pinch the meat around it.
2. Combine the flour and Creole seasoning (or cayenne pepper) in a shallow plate. Roll the meatballs evenly in the flour mixture, tapping off any excess. Reserve any remaining flour.
3. In a large skillet, heat the oil over medium heat. Add the meatballs and brown evenly, using a spoon to turn them. Remove the meatballs from the pan and set aside. With a wooden spoon, scrape the bottom of the pan to loosen any brown bits. Stir in the reserved seasoned flour. Stir constantly for 3 to 4 minutes to make a dark brown roux. Add the sliced onions and season with the remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon cayenne. Cook, stirring constantly, until the onions are slightly soft, about 2 minutes. Slowly pour in the beer and water and mix well. Bring to a boil and return the meatballs to the skillet. Reduce the heat to medium-low and simmer, uncovered, for about 1 hour, until the gravy is thick, turning and basting the meatballs with the pan gravy about every 15 minutes.

4. Remove from the heat and skim off any fat that has risen to the surface.
 5. Cut the loaf of bread lengthwise in half. Spread one half with the mustard and the other half with the mayonnaise. Arrange the provolone on the bottom half of the bread, overlapping the slices, then arrange the meatballs on top of the cheese. Spoon the gravy over the meatballs. Top with the remaining bred half, cut into 6 equal portions, and serve immediately.

Palm Beach Sandwiches (a.k.a. Pimento Cheese Sandwiches)

Despite their genteel Floridian name, these cheddar-cheese- and-red-pepper-salad-filled sandwiches are popular throughout the South. Good cooks embellish them variously (substituting homemade red pepper conserve or diced green chilies for the roasted peppers or supplementing either with chopped pecans); hasty cooks don't hesitate to resort to jarred pimientos.

2 large heavy red sweet peppers
3/4 cup mayonnaise, fresh or purchased
1/2 cup thinly sliced green onions
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
3/4 teaspoon hot pepper sauce
3/4 pound sharp Cheddar cheese, coarsely grated
16 thick slices white sandwich bread

In the flame of a gas burner or under a preheated broiler, roast peppers, turning them, until the skins are lightly and evenly charred. Slip the peppers into a paper bag, close the top and steam the peppers until cool. Rub away the burnt peel, then stem and core the peppers and finely chop them.

In a large bowl, stir together the chopped peppers, mayonnaise, green onions, lemon juice, mustard, and hot pepper sauce. Gradually stir in the grated cheese, mixing thoroughly . The sandwich filling can be prepared up to 1 day ahead. Cover and refrigerate; return it to room temperature before proceeding.

Up to 30 minutes before serving time, lay 8 slices of the bread on a work surface. Divide the filling evenly among the slices, spreading it to the edges of the bread and using it all. Top with the remaining 8 slices of bread. With a serrated knife, carefully cut the sandwiches in half on the diagonal. Cover the sandwiches with plastic wrap and then drape them with a dampened towel until serving.
